

Rizza Rodriguez

DEPARTMENT: Health & Human Services Agency (HHS) (HSA)
TITLE: Administrative Analyst II

RIZZA RODRIGUEZ began her career in the County in 2013 as a Human Services Specialist and in 2015, she promoted to an Administrative Analyst II position. Her prior work history included serving as Personal Banker at Wells Fargo Bank and as a Senior Human Resources Specialist at Convergys Corporation in the Philippines. Rizza received a Bachelors of Sciences in Agricultural Engineering (majoring in Bio-Processing) from the University of the Philippines.

Rizza serves as a co-secretary for CSDFEA. Most recently, she took on the leadership role of serving as one of the lead coordinators for the 2015 Employee Resource Group (ERG) Holiday Party, which successfully brought together County employees to celebrate diversity and the holiday season. Rizza has also volunteered for the following: 2014, 2015 & 2016 We All County/Point-in-Time County Interview; CAC Waterfront Park Grand Opening; 2014 & 2015 CSDFEA Philippine Independence Day Celebration; 2015 Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA); and the Philippine Consular Outreach events. She has actively participated in the following: County Regional Customer Service Ambassador for the HHS - East and North Central Regions; North Central FRC Subject Matter Expert in the Model Office Project Phase 2, lead coordinator and Program Committee for North Central Family Resource Center's 1st Filipino cultural event in 2014 ("Philippines at a Glance") and 2nd Filipino cultural event in 2015 ("Harana"). Rizza was also recognized with the County Positive Customer Experience award in 2015.

Rizza enjoys working for the County of San Diego. She also enjoys being part of CSDFEA. Being a member of CSDFEA has provided her numerous opportunities to share her skills and talents and most importantly serve the community. "Being part of CSDFEA is like being at home away from home. CSDFEA offers a lot of socio-cultural programs and activities that enriches the Filipino culture which I am passionate about."

Rizza firmly believes in "Bayanihan Spirit" where everyone is willing to help one another especially in time of need without receiving anything in return. During Rizza's spare time, she loves to sing, dance, paint, draw and take pictures.
